In the Circuit Court.

In the Circuit Court.

In Judge Pauli's court yesterday the matter of the probate of the Shortell will was put on trial to a jury.

In Part I the case of the city vs. May Williams, appealed from the police court, was called, and she did not respond. Judgment was given for $23 10 and costs against her and W. T. Emblen, her surety. Both Go to Moundsville.

Thomas Curry was convicted Thursday evening in the mayor's court at Benwood, on a charge of assault, preferred by n young son ot a Benwood hotel keeper. The details of the assault as keeper. The details of the assault as told at the trial were shocking. He was sentenced to the Moundsville jail for sixty days, and was taken there yesterday morning by Marshal Lew Gocke.

At the same time Charles Blake was tried for kicking the door of William Noneywell's residence in Benwood, and got a sixty day dose at Moundsville.

Pan Handle Officials,

A number of Pan Handle officials were in the city yesterday on a tour of were in the city yesterday on a tour of inspection. Among them were Superintendent J. J. Turner, Chief Train Dispatcher P. A. Bonebrake, Chief Engineer M. J. Becker, and Master of Maintenance and Way F. T. Hatche. They came from Pittsburgh on a special in the morning, and during the day went over the Pan Handle's Wheeling properties and as far down as Benwood. They left during the afternoon for New Cumberland and other points along the line.

At Clerk Hopk's Office.

Clerk Hook yesterday issued a marriage license to John A. Hoover, aged 20, of Martin's Ferry, and Ella Gasaway, aged 17, of Wheeling.

The last will and testament of Martin Warner, decessed, was admitted to pro-

Wagner, deceased, was admitted to pro-bate and ordered to be recorded. Mary Ann Wagner was appointed curator of the estate of Martin Wagner, deceased, and gave bond in the sum of $900, with G. Frederick Hartlelb as surety. William B. Hervey qualified as executor of the will of Mary J. Hervey, deceased, and gave bond in the sum of $7,000, without surety, none being required by the terms of the will.

Same Old Luck.

The bad luck of fare banks in Wheeling has become so proverbial all over the country that there is a slang saying in vogue, "As unlucky as dealing bank in Wheeling." It is said that the fitness of the adage was again shown this week, when two well known sporty boys went into one of the Market street banks, which had been doing a land office business for several days. The two had only a quarter between them They played the bank two hours, and came out with an even thousand dollars. The bank still had enough of a roll left to go on in the business, though.

A Boy in Jali for Theft.

Bert Tate, a son of Rev. H. W. Tate, was arrested for robbing the C., L. & W. ticket office at Bellaire, and $14.80 was found on his person, after which he confessed to taking $15 of the $23 stolen. He plead guilty to the charge when it was read to him by the mayor, and he recognized him to the probate court. The boy was then locked up. In the jall were two other boys, Richard Kane and Andy Edwards, charged with stealing turkeys. Young Tate learned from them that their parants were going to get them out, so he took out $7, which he gave to young Kane to help him out of trouble. This was learned yesterday, and the $7 received from the Kane boy, thus leaving the ticket agent out only $1.20.

La Belle Lodge had a good meeting last night. Two applications for membership were received, and two more are expected in a few days. The lodge will give a public installation of officers on the sixth of next month.

Welcome Lodge No. 6 had a pleasant surprise on Thursday night by a visit from Past Grand Master Maloney, of Franklin, Pa. He delivered a fine address, eulogising the lodge on the good work it is accomplishing, and said he would not forget his visit to this city as long as he lived. Excellent addresses were also made by Messra Brannersreuther, McClusky and others. Mr. Atwater, who accompanied the past grand master, also made a few remarks. Mr. Thiers sang a beautiful song, entitled "Only a Picture," and J. F. Gilligan sang the popular comic song, "Drill, Ye Terriers." Mr. Andrew Wray, of La Belle Lodge, recited "The Vagabond," which was well received. It was an enjoyable meeting to all present.

SABBATH CLOSING.

A Mass Meeting to be Held in Wheeling in that Behalf on Sunday.

in the interest of Sunday closing of the World's Columbian exposition at Chicago next-year was issued by Rev. Dr.

WHEREAS, The question of opening the gates of the Columbian exposition on the Lord's day is again raised, and the enemies of the American Sabbath are putting forth their best endeavors to persuade Congress to repeal the Sunday closing condition attached to to assemble in mass meeting to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Fourth Street M. E. church, to consider the issues involved in the present agitation, and to utter our protest against any respening of the question by Congress.

There is no question more important and no duty more imperitive at the present time. Let this be a grand uprising of the Christian and patriotic forces of Wheeling in defense of the American Christian Sabbath, and the rights of Americans.

Mr. George will be present and address the meeting, and a number of dress the meeting, and a number of others will make short talks. Such meetings are being held all over the country. Let Wheeling be in the front rank.

Riker last evening:

The following call for a mass meeting

A MAGNIFICENT BLOCK

To be Built on Main and Housteenth Streets at Once.

Mr. F. H. Lange, agent of the Rogers state, has decided to put up a large and fine business block on Main street at the southwest corner of Fourteenth street. The new building will be five stories in height, and occupy the site stories in height, and occupy the site of the present hardware store of Mr. Franzell and the wholesale drug store of Reed, Robb & Breiding adjoining. It will have a frontage on Main street of forty-five and a half feet, and will run back from Main to South, the Fourteenth street frontage being 125 feet.

The building will have a stylish front of either stone or brick, and pressed brick walls on Fourteenth and South streets. Sunday closing condition attached to the appropriation made at the last session; and Whereas, It seems necessary for the friends of the Sabbath to again let their voices be beard through personal letters and petitions, and Secretary S. A. George, of the American Sabbath Union, being providentially in the city, as president of the West Virginia Sabbath Association, and with too little time for consultation, I request all friends of the Sabbath, and lovers of good order, to assemble in mass meeting to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Fourth streets.

It will be occupied as soon as completed by Hicks & Hoge, the wholesale dry goods merchants whose establishment now adjoins the buildings to be torn down to make room for the new block. It will be built with especial view to suiting their business, and will have every modern appliance and convenience, among them passenger and freight elevators, and a hot water heating system. The water will be from an artesian well drilled under the building.

It is claimed that this will be the most complete and modern block in the most complete and modern block in the city when completed.

THE ROUND TABLE Had an Interesting and Instructive Meet-ing Last Night.

The Ohio Valley Round Table met last night at Superintendent Anderson's office in the Public Library building.

The school superintendents present were: Messra. Gladding, of East Liverpool, Mertz, of Steubenville; Jones, of Bellaire; Merrick, of Cadiz; Duncan, of Bridgeport; Shields, of New Martinaville; Williams, of Moundsville; Anderson, of Wheeling; Riggs, of Benwood, and Yarnell, of Coshocton. Also Superintendent Porterfield, of Belmont county; C. F. Stearns, representing the American Book Company, and Mr. Smith, music instructor, of Bridgeport. "Why do you have poor spellers?" was the title of the first question for discussion, and was participated in by all present. The conclusion reached was that there was too much formal spelling done and not enough of word use. were: Messrs. Gladding, of East Liver-was next discussed. Form of expression must be taught in the preceding class. Silent reading is of more importance than oral reading. Observation, investigation and natural science should be taught in every reading lesson.

"Reading, above the primary grades,"
Superintendent Gladding described a method of teaching reading, as follows:

Some pupil is selected to read a selec-tion for the benefit of the school. The pupil makes a thorough study of the selection and reads it in recitation, the selection and reads to in recitation, the other pupils of the room paying attention and gaining information.

The subject of arithmetic was next discussed and quite an interesting subject it proved to be. It is the sense of the Round, Table that analyses should be more thoroughly taught. Mental arithmetic should be carried through the high school.

The Round Table adjourned to meet Friday, January 27, in Wheeling.

December 24, 25, 25 and 31, 1822, and 3 jaiuary 1 and 2, 1893, excursion tickets at low round trip rates will be sold from stations on the Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburgh to points on those lines in Western Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Kentucky and West Virginia. Return coupon valid until January 3. FINE Pictures and Frames to suit. NICOLL'S Art Store, 1222 Market Sirect. Novel and Pleasant Recep

Lest night Mrs. Rev. Dr. Riker gave a reception to the young men of her Sabbath school class at the Fourth Street M. E. Sunday school, at which most of the sixty members were present. A novel teature was the manner of seating the guests at the fine supper served. Each plate had on it the name of a state, and each guest was given the name of a capital. He found the state of which he held the capital, and occupied that seat. After supper there were short talks by Messra. Will Dulin and A. H. Sisson, of the class, and A. J. Clarke, superintendent of the Sunday school.
